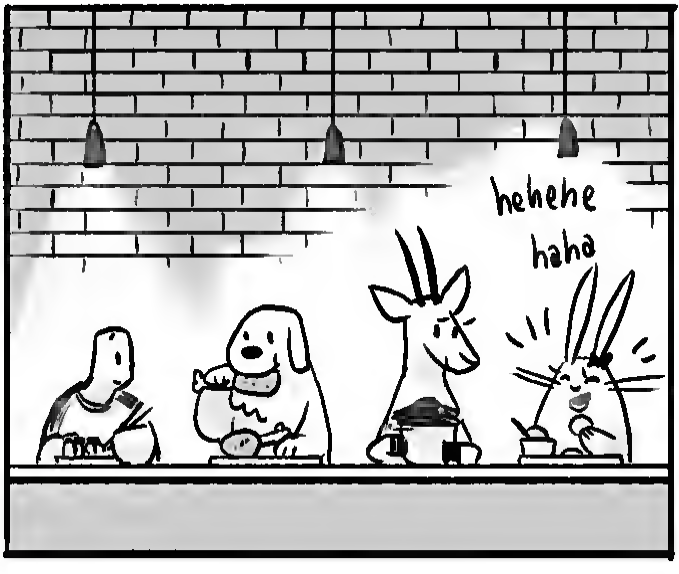
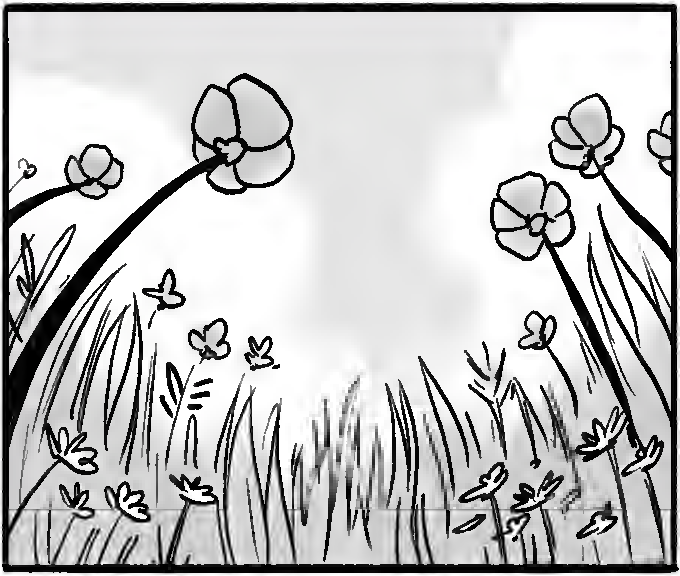
Spring time is here

Flowers are blooming



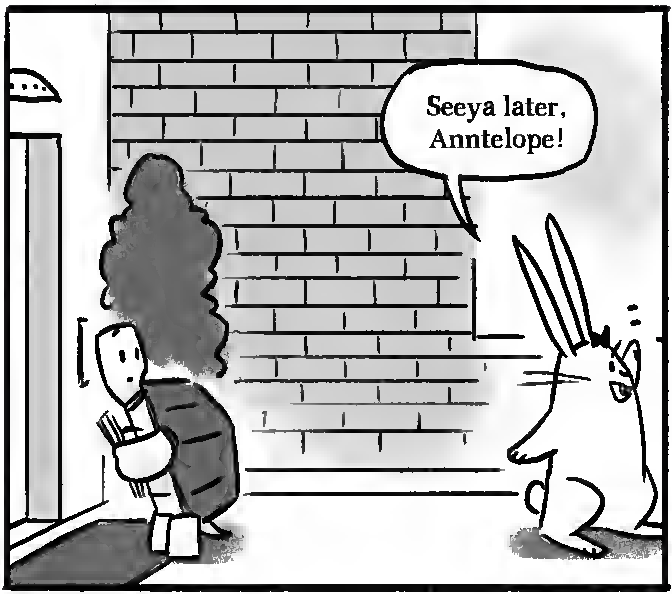
She is caring and loves to help others.



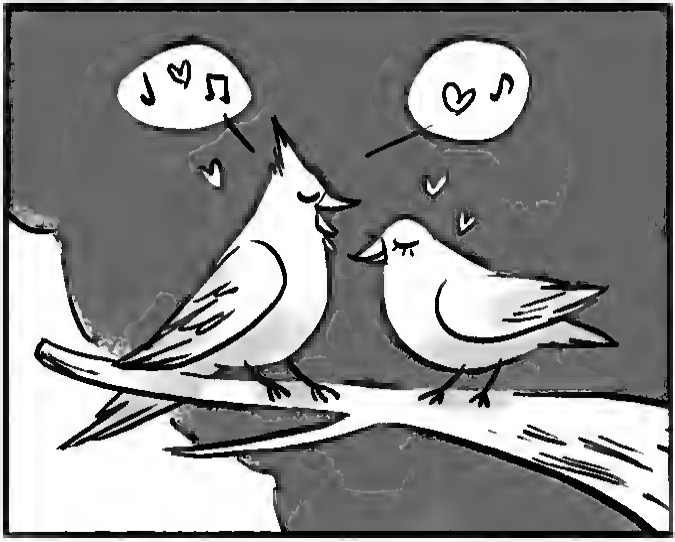
Birds are chirping

Too afraid to put my courage together,

so I just watch quietly from afar.



No problem, just take the lift to the 8th floor and turn right.
Have a great day!
thanks miss



Butterflies are having fun

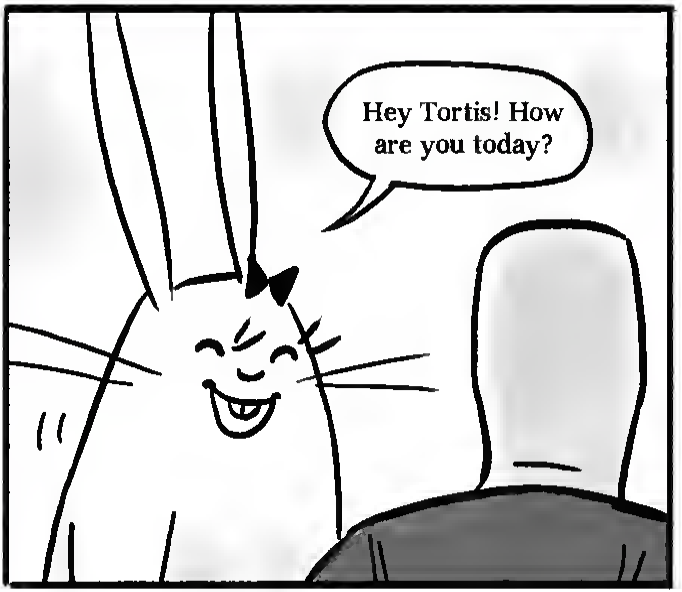
ROAR STREET JOURNAL

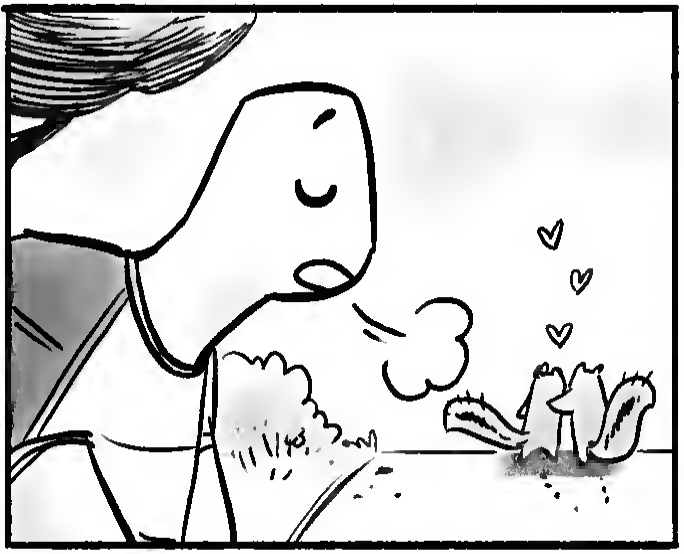
Tortis's Little Secret



But when she smiles and calls my name,

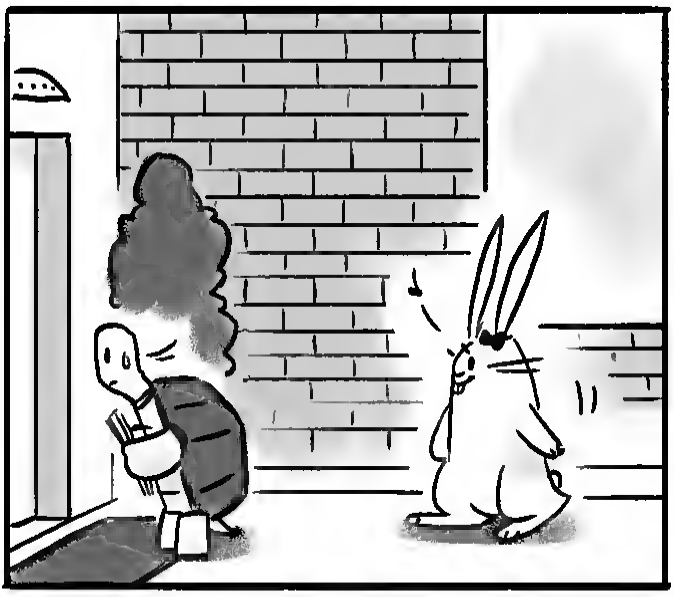
my world turns from winter to spring.

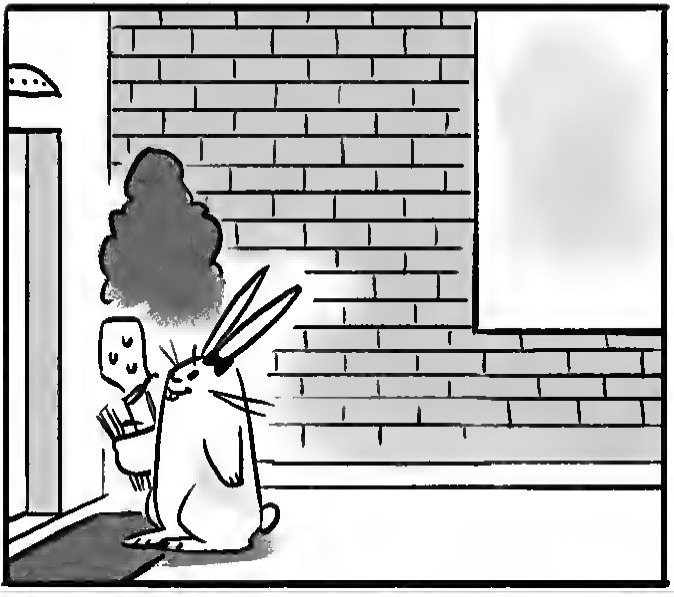
She has the best laugh, and she laughs a lot.

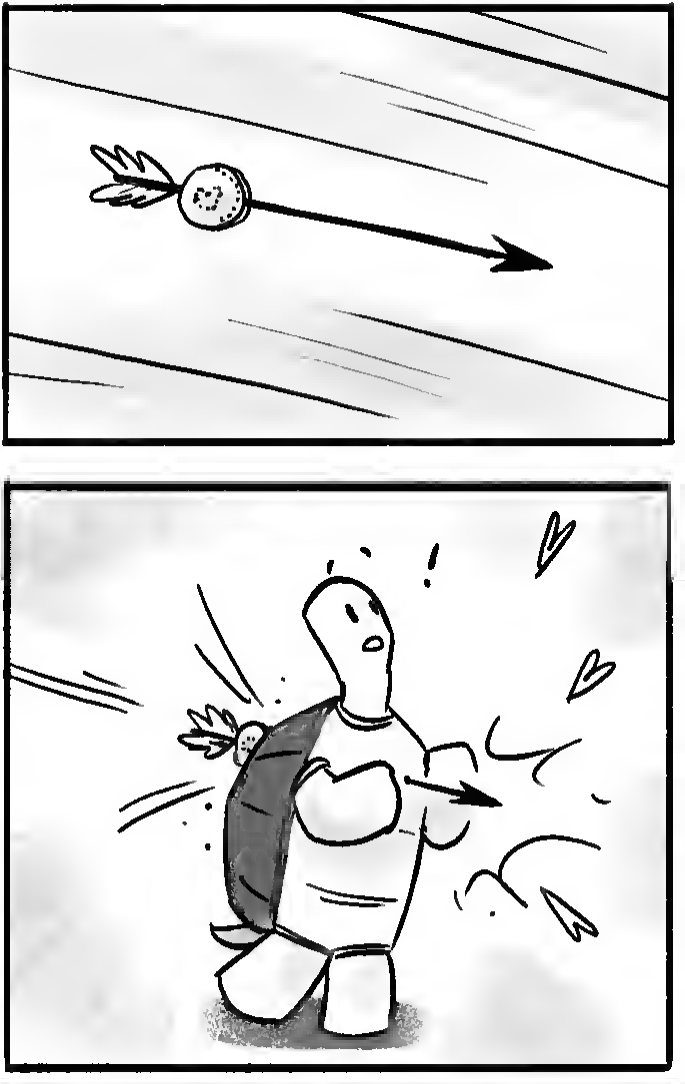


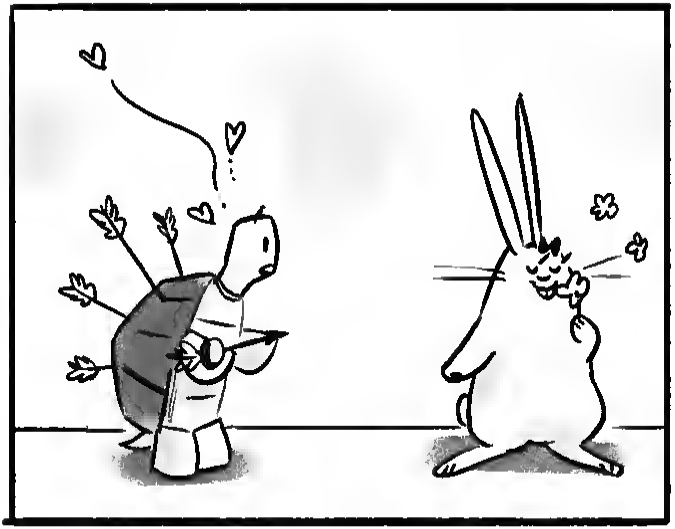
My friends said I am blind,

but I don't really mind.

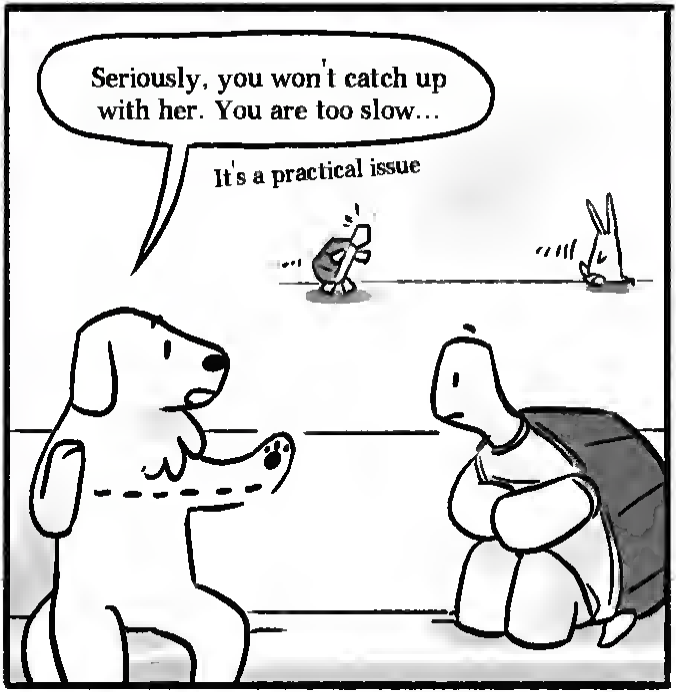








She is sweeter than the candies she loves.



Some say it's love at first sight,

I guess maybe they are right.

Everything seems so perfect and happy....

...except me and my lonely heart.
